We'd love to know your thoughts on what we do well and your ideas on how to make Charlestown even better.

Come along for a chat!

Some of our Year 5 children went to Broadhurst Primary School this week to meet Jo Welch-author of the 'The Einstein Code Book'.

They took part in a writing workshop, looking at codes and tense stories.

They had a brilliant time and represented Charlestown really well.

They even came home with a signed copy of the book!
