News:

Team 8 finally managed to visit Communitree this week to find out what it was like living in the Stone Age. They were very wet and muddy but they had an amazing day and really enjoyed themselves.

We have had a surprise package this week from a 'Secret Reader!' who sent the children a box of amazing books.

Some of the children have been volunteering to read some of the books and review them and hopefully recommend them to the other children and teachers! If any parents would be interested in reviewing any books, please contact Mr. Ball.
