

Writing my story- planning sheet

Little Red and the Very Hungry Lion	Miss Marsden's Story Little Red and the Very Ravenous Rhino	My Story
Little Red went to see her Auntie Rosie because she woke up covered in spots.	Little Red went to see her Auntie Rosie because she woke up with a terrible headache.	----- ----- ----- -----
On the way through the savannah the Very Hungry Lion spotted Little Red and cooked up a nasty plan to gobble her up.	On the way through the savannah the Very Ravenous Rhino spotted Little Red and cooked up a nasty plan to gobble her up.	----- ----- ----- -----
Little Red realised the lion was pretending to be Auntie Rosie so she tricked him into wearing hair bows, brushing his teeth and putting a dress on.	Little Red realised the rhino was pretending to her Auntie Rosie so she tricked him into brushing his hair, using some mouthwash and putting a tutu on.	----- ----- ----- -----
The Lion let Auntie Rosie out of the cupboard and they all ate doughnuts together.	The Ravenous Rhino let Auntie Rosie out of the cupboard and they all ate doughnuts together.	----- ----- ----- -----

Story Writing Word Mat

Adverbials (Use these to start your sentences)	One hot morning A few hours later	In the grassy savannah At the end of the long day	Across the plain After all that	Behind the tree After a long trek
Nouns (Objects you might see)	 desert  guava  passion fruit	 savannah  gazelle  meerkat	 water hole  antelope  elephant	 acacia tree  hippo  crocodile	 swamp  leopard  cheetah
Conjunctions (Use these to join two clauses)	and but so because when while although until
Adjectives (Use these to describe nouns)	hot sun-drenched ravenous starving hungry famished cunning swampy dry smooth open broad vast brave sneaky nasty shocking devious courageous fearless heroic bold
Verbs (Use these for action words)	trekked walked strolled sauntered travelled marched hiked ate gobbled devoured stuffed
Adverbs (Use these to describe verbs)	sneakily cunningly hungrily nastily deviously shockingly
Suffixes	fearless speechless powerless colourful helpful graceful amazement enjoyment happiness cleverness

1  am  Auntie Rosie  woke up _____.

 Little Red _____ through the  savannah to see her.

 She saw _____, _____ and _____.

The  Very _____ spotted  Little Red.

 He came up with a  plan to _____  Little Red.

The  Very _____ plonked  Auntie Rosie in a

_____ and _____  into bed.

 Little Red  knew it  wasn't  Auntie Rosie.

 Auntie Rosie,  what _____ you have!

 Auntie Rosie,  what _____ you have!

 Auntie Rosie,  what _____ you have!

STOOOOOOOOPPPP!!!  the Very _____.

If you are hungry,  all you need to do is _____ for some _____.

At the end of the  day,  Little Red,  Auntie Rosie and the  Very _____ ate  doughnuts together  happily.

Little Red and the Very _____ by _____ [illegible]