Sports News!

Congratulations to our Excel girls' team for reaching the Manchester league finals. After topping the group, they now stand a chance of becoming Manchester champions.

Also, we found out this week our Inspire girls' team have finished 2nd in their league. Unfortunately, there's now not a final. However, this does mean they have finished 2nd in North Manchester. Well done!!

Finally, our inspire boys' team took part in another round of fixtures. After some very close games, the finished drawing two and losing two. Well done boys!!
